

ONEONTA PUBLIC TRANSIT:

The City of Oneonta is a quaint upstate New York college community. It is the Home of SUNY College at Oneonta and Hartwick College. The resident population is around 8,000 and the college population is around 7,000 students. This is the home of the National Soccer Hall of Fame, and is a short distance to the Baseball Hall of Fame.

The Oneonta School system is one of the top rated systems in the state of New York. The area boasts the finest in cultural activities, not the least of which is the nationally known Glimmer Glass Opera.

The City is currently seeking applicants to fill part-time vacancies in their Public Transit Department. The hours are flexible and should fit into almost any schedule. We will provide training to you necessary to acquire a CDL. This is a great opportunity for retired people and those people seeking to augment their household income.

All interested parties are encouraged to contact the Personnel Office either through this web page or e-mail direct to:

wmiller@oneonta.ny.us.