

The City of Oneonta is accepting applications for a seasonal Laborer to serve as a gardener with the Engineering Department. Responsibilities will include tending to planters and plantings around Main Street and the city parks. Work will run through October. Applications and application instructions are available at www.oneonta.ny.us/personnel. EOE